

ou borrow your friend's book on Friday. Over the weekend, your brother tore some pages from it by mistake. What should you do?

You bring your ball outside for recess. Your friends want to play a different game than the one you want to play. What should you do?

our team just won a trophy. Your friend on the other losing team looks sad. What should you say to him/her?

riend walks by and smiles at you. What should you do?

group of friends are saying mean things about one of your friends. You don't like it. What should you do?

u just saw a classmate take someone's pencil without asking. What should you do?