

How big is the problem?

TORNADO

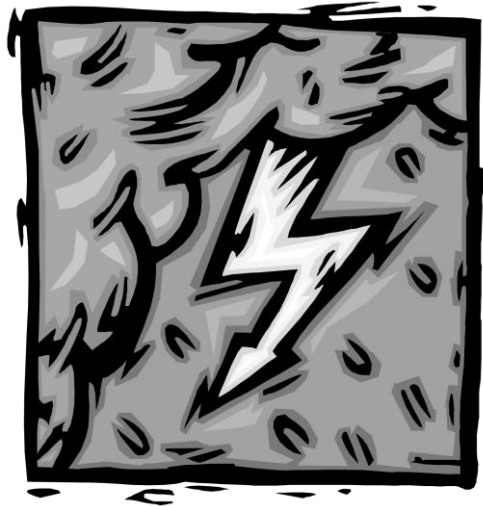

(Someone is hurting your body, someone is in danger, you feel unsafe, etc.)

A BIG problem! A tornado-sized problem means there is an emergency.

THUNDERSTORM

(You're very worried, you're very sad, you're very mad, you need help with your behavior, etc.)

A medium problem. You need an adult to help with thunderstorm problems

RAIN

(You and your friend aren't getting along, you need help getting better grades, you are having problems with your brother/sister, etc.)

A small problem. Some rain problems you can solve on your own and some you need an adult for.
